My father worked hard all his life
Providing for a family of five
And the values he lived by
He instilled in me

He taught me the measure of someone
Is where they stand and who they love
You'll never be better
Than what you were born to be

And I'm running after crazy dreams
And all that matters is everything
The people that I love
And the faces that I've met
And I've made my share of fools mistakes
But that all comes with chasin' fate
If I never make it there, well atleast
I can say
No regrets

I put my time in on the road
Rolled with the punches and took some blows
And found myself in Memphis, New Orleans and LA

And I tripped up a time or two
And fell in love with someone new
Prince charming, I've lost a few along the way
And I'm running after crazy dreams
And all that matters is everything
The people that I love
And the faces that I've met
And I've made my share of fools mistakes
But that all comes with chasin' fate
If I never make it there, well atleast
I can say
No regrets

Bridge:
No regrets when this journey ends
No regrets, this is who I am

And I'm running after crazy dreams

And all that matters is everything
The people that I love
And the faces that Iâ€™ve met
And Iâ€™ve made my share of fools mistakes
But that all comes with chasinâ€™ fate
If I never make it there, well atleast
I can say

If I never make it there, well atleast
I can say
No regrets
