ohh yeah

when you look at me, I feel a strong feeling i can't say its hard to explain it really wish I knew what it is oh wish i knew all the answers to life but then how would I learn more and more

i am brave and I'm the new girl stronger then ever,
felt loneiness at first but now look at the bright side its only you and this song that matters the most thought at first i'd get nowhere but i seemed to handle it very well oh yeah

come on,
dont be shy,
show who you really are and let the crowd come in and enjoy who you can be

oh yeah
never let fear come first

had a feeling so strong it blew me away,very easy wish i could hold on,and never let go of this life, now you know how much you mean so dont think you dont mean anything at all cause you know that'll never be true you're never alone

dont care what they say do what you love to do

dont let fear come first dont give up never just be you, and the world will relate to that
