for a living,

all I know is that I'm just a normal girl' and apart from that I don't know, how do I keep on running with everything? without tripping,? and forgetting, who I am come on, sing this with me , dont leave me without saying goodbye dont leave me heart broken, with the wispers in my head, its driven me insane

I found a life, only to live once,
I was born in a life, where
I do so much love for a living, i'm not a clock that can tic by,
like you say,
I'm just like you, baby,
let me do what I love to do for a living, apart from opening my eyes, from the day I was born lets remember something, else I can't look back its to upsetting, I won't plan my life, I'll take what comes, and baby I'll love it if you let me do what I love to do,

for a living,

dont leave me, heart broken, dont tell me whats right for me, dont, shut me out, like you try, I'm just a normal teen,' if you dont see look back an feel ashamed its all I got to say,

I found a life, only to live once,
I was born in a life, where
I do so much love for a living,
i'm not a clock that can tic by,
like you say,
I'm just like you, baby,
let me do what I love to do for a living,
