Just my imaginary

la la la la la la la

everything seems like just my imaginary, oh how do I change? Oh I wish I knew that life is like a book full of stories, Can't imagine walking the world alone' Oh this can change I know it" deep within... as strange as I feel, the stronger I get'
Is there any way to prove I am right, this time?

me making mistakes, regretting everything, turning around and saying i'm the only 1 that understand's
Oh its just my imaginary I believe DON't Go ahead Calling me what you like oh yeah

I just wanna get my way, just wanna know it was all just my imaginary what does it take to get kool'? can't stand to be called a fool can't stand knowing, i could loose you any time' oh yeah

me making mistakes, regretting everything, turning around and saying i'm the only 1 that
understand's
calling me what you like
