Nobody Listens,
Nobody Cares,
oh It seems like life never fades away
I want to scream, to get all the hate out I wanna be right, I wanna show you what I can do tonight
oh baby, what do I do when I know life, never fades away and all thats left in the end is flawed and predictable me

I can smile, I can sing,
I can do whatever I like
No rergets, NO comments
I just do what I want,
Oh you know I'd love to spend a thousand years here On earth, just to be with you, I'd do anythink, I'd do anythink to please

Chorus

life never fades away
No matter what,
Nothing can make me cry
Nothing can make me feel so horrible within,
Nothing I know is gonna make me let go, of the good girl
I am within You know being somethink I'm not,
Kills me alot, So I dont Bother at all I just be me and hope people can see, where I am coming from

Oh yeah

I can make a thousand words, and make no sense
I can search the world and still not find what I'm looking for

oh yeah

I wanna be brave, I wanna show you what I can do
tonight

I don't wanna fall like a star from the sky, baby
Let me IN, Come ON Let me In, On this one

Chorus

life never fades away
No matter what,
Nothing can make me cry
Nothing can make me feel so horrible within,
Nothing I know is gonna make me let go, of the good
I am within You know being somethink I'm not,
Kills me alot, So I dont Bother at all I just be me
and hope people can see, where I am coming from

ohh
Life never fades away"
I Dont wanna fall like a star from the sky
I wannabe this way forever,
I want to keep in mind that life never fades away
