Raw

My life, My dreams how do they all match up together? oh all I want is a moment to last I dont want everything within to turn raw oh what do I do? without you ... my love I can sing a song, and still feel unloved babe you know your never worthless, you know your never alone
no matter what you feel within babe chorus

everything so deep within has turned raw and I'm here standing like eveyrthings ok its like I can't feel a thing, Oh I want some light to shine,
I dont want darkness to fall on me'
how do I get somewhere?
yeah ohh yeah

You can make a thousand wishies, You can do what you like" still be where you are now, I wish I had you, I wish you knew I wish I did it when I knew I had the chance babe

I still feel so loney inside, even when I'm with you, what do I do ? without you...my love my world would turn upside down I'd never stop, until I get my way until I nail what I planned baby

and I'm here standing like eveyrthings ok
its like I can't feel a thing,
Oh I want some light to shine,

how do I get somewhere?

can't turn raw,
can't turn ugly, baby, can't turn bad can't turn away from you....

yeah oh yeah

Can't turn tables around day and night, can't let you go,
oh yeah
can't turn raw
can't turn upside down
can't let fear get in my way baby, oh yeah

and I'm here standing like eveyrthings ok
its like I can't feel a thing,
Oh I want some light to shine,
how do I get somewhere?
