Baby you don't understand how crazy I am over you and baby and baby one day you will respect a real woman a real woman you know I took this time to write a song to let you know how I feel (yeah) how you hurt me, how you did me wrong but now I know, I gotta stay strong when you needed me I always was around when I needed you, you always get down I am tired it is over now (yeah)
(Chorus)

Baby you don't understand how crazy I am over you, and baby one day you will respect real woman a real woman Baby you don't understand how crazy (you don't understand) Baby baby one day you will will respect a real woman a real woman (ooh ooh) You never had a gurl like me a gurl you know was very faithful to you, who respected you, all the things you did who was there when everything went down see you ain't you to gurlz who tried to take ya money, always sayin what they want but never gave a care of what you need baby now you doggin me (ooh ooh ooh)
(Chorus)

If you really want me to be ya gurl you will know how to treat me, and i'll give the love that you need, but don't you know I'm a real woman (a real woman)
