Unwanted

I know you love me
I know you miss me every time you say goodbye
But all I can do is dream at the same time

When I'm without you I'm only me
When I'm with you I'm who you want me to be
I know you love me
I know you miss me every time you say goodbye

Yeah yeah

It seems weird me being a teenager
I never thought I'd be this
I know you miss me every time you say goodbye
But all I can do is dream at the same time

This is what I am going to sing out loud
To you this is what I'm going to let the whole world know
I've had secrets but then everybody just had to know them
Soon or later never can live if they find me unwanted
Cause of something I never show

It seems weird me being a teenager
I never thought I'd be this
I know you miss me every time you say goodbye
But all I can do is dream at the same time

I could never live if I had hate
I could never live if I was unwanted
I could never live without you
But I say

All I can do is dream

It seems weird me being a teenager
I never thought I'd be this
I know you miss me every time I say goodbye

I could never live without you
I could never live if I was unwanted

Yeah yeah (i could never live if I was unwanted) Ohhh never live if I was unwanted
Seems weird being a teenager
I never thought I'd be this
I know you miss me every time I say goodbye.
