Sitting on the green green grass
I know the sky is blue
And I know that this is true
So do you

In this world the rainbow has
So many colors to see
There is red, red yellow and green
And there's blue
There are so many colors
What color are you?
When I look at the rainbow (oh oh)
I only see them with you
Ooooooooooh...

Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
(I only see them with you)
Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
(I only see them with you)
Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
With you
With you
(I only see them with you)

Sitting on the green green grass
I know the sky is blue
And I know that this is true
So do you

In this world the rainbow
Has so many colors to see
There is red, red, yellow and green
And there's blue
There are so many colors
What color are you?
When I look at the rainbow (oh oh)
I only see them with you
Ooooooooooh...

Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
(I only see them with you)
Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
(I only see them with you)
Red, yellow and blue and green
And I only see them with you
(I only see them with you)
I see red and white and blue and gold
And white and blue and white and orange
And pink and white and blue and orange
Outside of my mind's window

And I and I can only see them with you
Can you see them too?
With me with you
Can you see them too?
With me with you
With me with you
With me with you
(I only see them with you)
