Baby girl, I know I haven't been perfect for you
But before you say we're through
I think you should think a little while Cause this is just a bump in the road
We'll get over this
Just like the last one that we did
And now we're closer because of this

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong
It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't loose to playing games
Cause we were built for love

And it ain't easy loving you
When the lights shut off and the , do
But somehow we always make it through
That's what I call out
So if it , take a ,
Baby you know, I know, I ain't going nowhere
I'm staying right here, just for the call out

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong
It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't loose to playing games
Cause we were built for love
Yeas built for love
We're built for love
We're built for love, yeah, yeah, yeah
Built for love
Yes we're built for love
We'll always pass the test

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong

It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't loose to playing games
Cause we were built for love
we were built for love
we were built for love
we were built for love.
