As we go, as we go, as we go, as we go, as we go
As we go a little somethin' like this
As we go, as we go, as we go, as we go, as we go
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

Now let's get this party started off the right way
Oww and hoe I think the crowd might say
Whom we're on stage you know you can't resist
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

I'm the ultimate and that's all I can say
I sat down for about eight hours a day
Tryin' to figure out the proper description of me
And I came to the decision that

There's no one syllable or phrase
That can adequately describe this new craze
But I'll sum it up in one sentence, let's see
Okay, I've got it, "All praise me"

Yo, that's about the size of it
I know it sounds kinda strange, doesn't it?
But when we're on the stage you know you can't resist
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

As we go
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

It was a Friday afternoon if I remember it correctly
But I can't quite recall the time exactly
But it was somewhere around, two or three or four Forget it, let's just go on

Anyway I stepped out of school
Sneaks were Gucci shirt was Polo and my pockets were full Blew some kisses to the girlies 'cause I like to tease
They started chantin' my name, I said, "Ladies please"

I grabbed my friends and hopped in my Benz
Grabbed on Martini and Rossi passed out to my posse Things were lookin' good, I had plans for later on

Plans for Donna Michelle, plans for Stacy Leshaun

Word I was ready, I wonder if Jeff's home
Let me give him a call, on my car phone
Yo Jeff, what's shakin? Coolin', what's up
Girlies I'm with it, come pick me up

I caught up with ready on the way to Jeff's
A whole carload of girlies and they all was def
We walked into Jeff's and said, "Girls, you can't resist"
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

As we go
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

Yo, Jeff man, are you with me? Hit it
I didn't hear you man, are you with me, hit it
I'm with it to get busy

Somethin' like this, somethin' like this Somethin' like this, yo, a little somethin' like this Ready Rock C, give Jeff a hand

Somethin' like this, somethin' like this
Somethin' like this, hit it

As we go
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

Throw away them jams, 'cause you don't need 'em anymore
'Cause this hip-hop hit is gonna keep you on the floor
If you dance everyday or if you never danced before
It doesn't matter if it's somethin' like this

Time is essential so let's make the best of it
Today we don't have a lot of time, so let's not throw it all away
Let's use this time in a very special way
Let's use it somethin' like this

I went outside at about 12:30
I saw a couple girlies and they were lookin' pretty good
If you know what I mean
So I freshened my breath and stepped on the scene, hit it

I walked over to 'em, stepped in between them
One stepped to the other, I think that I've seen him Somewhere before I said, "Sweethear, you might have"
She said, "Oh yeah, it was last night"

"At that party", I said, yeah I tried to talk to you there
But you were actin', as if you were scared
She said, "I'm not scared now," I said, "Bet, well let's go then"
She said, "But hold up, what about my friend?"

I said, "I got a friend" so the three of us left
Went back to my crib and gave a call to Jeff Five minutes later, Jeff walked in
And I thought to myself, yeah, now the fun begins

But the girls started buggin' and they said, "Now we want
Dinner in the best resteraunt in town"
We want caviar and lobster tails, both by candlelight
"And dom perignon", I said, yeah right

Y'all must be crazy and Jeff said, "You know
I really think it's time for these ladies to go"
We walked 'em to the door and told 'em they were dismissed
And it went a little somethin like this

But that was okay, that was alright
'Cause we still had fun that night ya know it
The moral of the story is plain and visible
We always watch out for those kind of women

But the past is the past and the present is the present
And we feel that everyone should be sittin' down
So you all don't miss
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it

As we go a little somethin' like this
As we go a little somethin' like this, hit it
As we go a little somethin' like this
