Who am I to call your name?
You know I'm in no condition
Can these tiny prayers ascend up to your gate
And make a new creation
Make an new creation out of me?

Who am I to find your faith?
I'm in love with my addictions
Is it possible to throw them all away
And make a new creation
Make an new creation out of me?

Who am I to teach your way?
I'm a walking contradiction
But I'm asking that you take this ball of clay
And make a new creation
Make an new creation
Make an new creation
Make an new creation out of me
