When I see myself into your eyes, I can't do anything,
but stop and think if that's me.I see the face the face I could only see.I wonder if that's really me.I see deep into your eyes,but no one sees. I keep on crying,but no one hears.i'm so upset,that you don't see.
You walk towards me, which I can see.You pass by me I feel your breeze. You talk to someone, but i can't see. I feel you close,close to me, but can't do anything so let go of me.I thought you wouldn't, but now I see.
You let go, I wondered why. You told me it's cause you loved me so.
I believed you, then i trusted you so you left me. All you wanted was
the best for me.
