Going tomorrow, leaving town
Put our thoughts behind
And pick them up on Monday
I already hear the sounds

Of Mariachi.S playing, wish the trip was one-way
Party starts at 9 o'clock, me and my boys
Taking names and numbers
By 12 o'clock we'll be so far under

I'll be where the river runs deep enough
I can lose myself or find my way home
I'll be where the river runs deep enough
I can lose myself or find my way home

8am, maid's at the door
Can't hear what she's saying
I know she wants to wake me
Since I've been out the night before

Wanna stay in my bed
Not a hurricane could shake me
Party started at 9 o'clock, so me and my boys
Were taking names and numbers
By 12 o'clock we were so far under

I'll be where the river runs deep enough
I can lose myself or find my way home
I'll be where the river runs deep enough
I can lose myself or find my way home
