We're the past time of the gossips and it hurts me through and through
For there's saying we don't care just what we do
I turn my head and close my heart to what I know is true
But I don't apologize for loving you
I feel guilty when I hold you for another wears name
And it's wrong for me to do these things to you
Each time I kiss you I am petting fuel to the flame
But I don't apologize for loving you [steel]
Maybe I have made you sorry from the first day that we met
With all the things I never meant to do
I know that I will pay throughout a lifetime of regret
But I don't apologize for loving you
Even when I'm with another you're the one I'm thinking of
Just a habit that I have of loving you
I'm sorry that the other hearts were broken by our love
But I don't apologize for loving you
