I just can't get it through my head, you love another now instead Can't make myself believe we're really through I'm walking up and down the hall talking to a silent wall
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you

I think, I've almost lost my mind, I think about you all the time
I'm going crazy, yes, I know and I don't have far to go
The way you treat me is a shame but I'll keep loving you
the same

I keep your letters, I should burn, I wear your ring, I should returned There's a million foolish things I do It makes me cry but you would laugh to know I kiss your photograph
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you

I think, I've almost lost my mind, I think about you all
the time
I'm going crazy, yes, I know and I don't have far to go
The way you treat me is a shame but I'll keep loving you
the same
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you
