(Vic McAlpin - Roy Drusky)

The lights are low the teardrops flow
Mis'ry is complete
I'd like to know where people go
When they leave lonely street?

Could there be such a place
Where you hurt too much to cry
Where broken hearts can never mend
And I'm left alone to die.

I love him so that's why I go
Where blues and mem'ries meet
I'd like to know where people go
When they leave lonely street?

--- Instrumental ---

Could there be such a place
Where you hurt too much to cry
Where broken hearts can never mend
And I'm left alone to die.

I love him so that's why I go
Where blues and mem'ries meet
I'd like to know where people go
When they leave lonely street?

I'd like to know where people go
When they leave lonely street?...
