(Jimmy McHugh - Al Dubin - Irvin Dash)

Now who breaks a heart like a child breaks a toy
It's a man every time, it's a man
Who brings the heartaches and takes all the joy
It's a man every time, it's a man.

When a man makes a blunder the whole world forgives
While she has to suffer as long as she lives
Then who's to blame if her head hangs in shame
It's a man every time, it's a man.

When a man makes a blunder the whole world forgives
While she has to suffer as long as she lives
Then who's to blame if her head hangs in shame
It's a man every time, it's a man.

It's a man every time, it's a man...
