(Red Hayes)

Kiss just couldn't last the way some things do
These awful heartaches are long overdue
With somebody's hopes of the love that is gone
And life has its pick of the weak and the strong.

He's been so unwise and unfaithful too
Can we trust ourselves again to be true
Untold is the sadness when love has gone wrong
'Cause life has its pick of the weak and the strong.

--- Instrumental ---

If we have the chance to love once again
Could we find the way to change what has been
I think it will lettered love can be a song
'Cause life has its pick of the weak and the strong.

The gossips will talk and strangely enough the stories they'll spread will be about us
By three tons of evil one's doom by their own
For life has its pick of the weak and the strong...
