(Ned Miller - Sue Miller - Kurt Hertha)

You say you don't love her my darling
But somehow you can tell her so
So we hide as we still tender moments
We hide so nobody will know.

Two voices, two shadows, two faces
That hide in the dark of the night
Two voices, two shadows, two faces
Afraid to come out in the light.

--- Instrumental ---

You tell me be patient my darling
Tomorrow you'll tell her bout me
We've gone through a million tomorrows
How long will our love have to be.

Two voices, two shadows, two faces
That hide in the dark of the night
Two voices, two shadows, two faces
Afraid to come out in the light..
