Yo Mona Lisa, could I get a date on Friday even if you busy

I wouldn't mind taking Saturday-ay-ay (talking) Right about now, if you in your jeep
please turn up your radio

If you don't have a jeep, you have a little whoop-dee
I still want you to crank up your volume
We want all the ladies to sit back, relax, let your hair out

Wyclef Presents the Neville Brothers in the house tonight

I know a girl, she ruled my world whatever I need, she supplied (living in Paradise)
She ruled my heart, till death do us part (Wyclef) Her love was like exstacy
At least that's how I thought it would be (Wyclef) So Neville Brothers what you tellin' me?
At least that's how I thought it would be (Wyclef) One question. What was her name?

Chorus

Mona Lisa, you called my name (Mona Lisa)
Late in a park but I did not respond (Mona Lisa)
And you asked me what I'm thinking of
In the morning I'll be gone
No more lovin' out the door (out the door)
No longer can we share

The love that was never there
When the moon has lost it's light and the stars are no longer bright yeah
No longer can we share

The love that was never there
(Wyclef) No need to cry girl, it's gonna alright Girl don't you cry, please dry your eye all you ever been was faithful in my life (I apologize)
Hope the future brings us back together
At least that's how I thought it would be
At least that's how I thought it would be (Wyclef) So Neville Brothers what was her name?

Chorus

(Wyclef talking) Right about now if you at a dance
I want you to hold your girl real tight

We got the Neville brothers in the house tonight
'Long side Wyclef, you know how we do it
I wanna apologize to you
I never wrote a love song, this my first one
