Just give a little sign
That's all I need
I watch for you each morning
Down on the street

Your name is in my notebook
Your face is on my mind
If there's a chance for me girl
Just give a little sign

I'm just another kid in denims
To a woman of the world
Sophisticated lady
With diamond rings and pearls

But what I have to offer
Is worth much more than cash
Some dedicated loving
With no strings attached

Look into my eyes
And tell me what you find
Am I just a young man blinded by the light
This infatuation only in my mind
If there's more for me girl
Just give a little sign

Just give a little sign
That's all I need
When you come home at midnight
With a friend I believe

I'll be standing in the shadow
When you kiss him good night
If you need me I'll be waiting
Just give a little sign

I'm just another kid in denims
To a woman of the world
Sophisticated lady
With diamond rings and pearls

But what I have to offer
Is worth much more than cash
Some dedicated loving

Just give a little sign
That's all I need
I watch for you each morning
Down on the street

Your name is in my notebook
If there's a chance for me girl
Just give a little sign

I'm just another kid in denims
Sophisticated lady

But what I have to offer

Just give a little sign
That's all I need

I'll be standing in the shadow

Just give a little sign
That's all I need
I watch for you each morning
Down on the street

Your name is in my notebook
