As midnight dawns and kills the day,
The make-believe becomes and ??? fades away ???
It's now so dark, that no one sees
The empty world in which they lived in misery
I never chose this kind of life
Where there's no love, no understanding, only fight
I will make out and this I swear
But I don't care the sweat it takes I know I'll dare

Love me away, love me away
Love me away, from all these ??? creatures sliding to my soul
Love me away
Love me away, take me to places there's some way hope can grow
Love away

You can be hurt but cannot scream
The rules are set but you are screwed before the deal Cold becomes ice, heat becomes hell
To feel at ease is not a feeling you can spell
I never chose this kind of life
Between obeying, being scared far beyond pride
I will make out, you can be sure
I'll learn so much they will not know me anymore

Love me away, love me away
Love me away, from all this thoughts that ??? sliding to
my soul
Love me away
Love me away, take me to places where this (helping?)
hope can grow
Love away

Love me away, love me away
Love me away, from all this thoughts that ??? sliding to
my soul
Love me away
hope can grow
Love away, don't leave me here, fly me away

Love me away, to meet those people who refused ??? sin and pray
Love me away, (Steal / heal ?) me away
??? I've never ??? want to stay, love me away
Love me away, love me away
Love me away, just look at me I don't ??? to hold this way
Take me away,
Love me away, with or without you there is no way no out we'll stay
Love me away, love me away, love me away.
