I'm here to cure your condition, oh baby
I know your heart's just a prison, oh baby
It drags you down, baby, it sucks you in

Darkness 'cause I've been bereavin', oh baby
Sadness since you said you're leavin', oh baby
And so I'll wipe all the pain till it's gone

We are the living today, come steady yourself now
We are the living today and nothing can stop us
What we take on then we stand as one
Yeah, it is a song we all sing
We are the living today, come steady yourself now

You heard me promise you forever, oh baby
Don't you see it's now or never, oh baby
Two of a kind, it's the time of our lives

We are the living today, come steady yourself now
We are the living today and nothing can stop us
What we take on then we stand as one
Yeah, it is a song we all sing
We are the living today, come steady yourself now, oh

Close your eyes and we'll make our dreams come true
Close your eyes
Baby, open up your heart anew, yeah, yeah

We are the living today and nothing can stop us
What we take on then we stand as one
Yeah, it is a song we all sing
We are the living today, hey, yeah

We are the living today, come steady yourself now
We are the living today and nothing can stop us
What we take on then we stand as one
Yeah, it is a song we all sing
We are the living today, come steady yourself now
