Soon you will go
It's the same old thing
I will miss you so
I know the days
Will go by at a
Snail's pace in my mind

Everything you want
Is everything I want, too
To make the most of every
Moment in an ecstasy of love

This is our last moonshine night
Please save your breath and love
Me through the night
Last me all through the week my love
Your dark brown eyes
The moon makes them shine bright

Kiss me good bye
Come back home again, stay a longer while
And my thoughts of you will occupy my every
My every minute

Everything you want
Is everything I want, too
To make the most of every
Moment in an ecstasy of love

This is our last moonshine night
Please save your breath and love
Me through the night
Last me all through the week my love
Your dark brown eyes
The moon makes them shine bright

This is our last moonshine night
Make love to me more than just once night
Once for monday, tuesday,
Once for wednesday,
Why not once for everyday

I hear your voice - it's calling me
My comfort is you loving me
You had away with my heart
And you promised
You'll allways kepp it close to yours

This is our last moonshine night
Please save your breath and love
Me through the night
Last me all through the week my love
Your dark brown eyes
The moon makes them shine bright

This is our last moonshine night
Make love to me more than just once night
Once for monday, tuesday,
Once for wednesday,
