I know your listening. It's been way too long I kept wishing for change but never tried to hold on
And now I'm asking you, for some help today
Please help me change the world

Everybody's growing up (Growing Up), everybody's moving on (Moving On)
Every time you open up your eyes you see it too
Everybody changed their ways (Changed their Ways), everybody tried to stay (tried to Stay)
But when that time had came, it was you

I know your listening. And Now I'm Back again
Just the same little girl I hoped you wouldn't forget
So just remember me, And just please try to see I'm growing older and still need a walk up the hill

Everybody's growing up (Growing Up), everybody's
moving on (Moving On)
Every time you open up your eyes you see it too
Everybody changed their ways (Changed their Ways), everybody tried to stay (tried to Stay)
But when that time had came, it was you
When I see your face, I remember days
When you called me your baby I regret to say
I never knew the truth, hiding behind that smile
Telling me that it's okay

Everybody's growing up (Growing Up), everybody's
moving on (Moving On)
Every time you open up your eyes you see it too
Everybody changed their ways (Changed their Ways), everybody tried to stay (tried to Stay)

Electric Guitar Solo: Patrik Svedlund

I know your listening, and know I see
When I hear the wind whistle I know your watching me
And Now I know the truth, and yes I feel you there
Telling me that it's okay
