Damn I never thought
I'd say what I'm about to say
Didn't want anyone
But I met you and the whole thing changed (yeah)
All the things you said had me hopin'
That your game was true. (yeah)
Got to comfortable didn't see the real side of you

And I was sorriest even with your best
This is ain't gonna work no more.
What was I waiting for

I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
You know I really had it.
I'm so done

Now don't come around
With promises that don't exist
Cause heard it all before
And your sorrys ain't fixing this (no)
Held on for so long
Cause I didn't want to let you go
Thinking you really cared (you really cared)
And that time would let it show

And I was sorriest even with your best
This is ain't gonna work no more.
What was I waiting for

I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you

There will be no second chances

Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
You know I really had it.
I'm so done

Maybe I was stupid
Thinking you could handle this
I was devil counted on you for my happiness (yeah)
I had to realize I didn't see it until now
Been a fool needing you, now I'm breaking up
So I'm gonna keep pressin' on

I'm so done (oohh)
I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
You know I really had it.

I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
You know I really had it
