Visit "Someone's Waiting" on MotoLyrics.com

Don't say no more someone's waiting and I've always been as true as I could be Your lips are so warm and invited but I'd better leave someone's waiting for me

If he knew I was here he'd be crying and that's something I never want to see Oh your hands are so warm they're too warm I'd better go someone's waiting for me And I love him much too much to ever hurt him we both be better off if I leave That was so unkind to brought us together I'd better leave someone's waiting for me
