Tell me just wher do ya think you're going
What am I supposed to do now
Callin' us a waste of time
You don't know how sad that sounds

Now wasn't I there anytime you needed
And bit of love from me
What can I do to stop your leavin'
You want me to say I'm sorry

Chorus:
Don't you know you're what I'm all about
And I'm so used to havin' you around
Was it somethin' I said or somethin' I didn't do
'Cause obviously I don't have a clue

Well I mighta woke up on the wrong side of mornin'
But I ended every evening with a kiss
I could have overlooked a few tender moments
But how did it come to this

While I figure out where this is goin'
I better get down on my knees
In case this is my last chance to show ya
Hey, you, ya gotta believe me

Repeat chorus twice

Oh, obviously I don't have a clue
