Tell me just where do ya think you're going
What am I supposed to do now
Callin' us a waste of time
You don't know how sad that sounds

Now wasn't I there anytime you needed
And a bit of love from me
What can I do to stop your leavin'
You want me to say I'm sorry

Don't you know you're what I'm all about
And I'm so used to havin' you around
Was it somethin' I said or somethin' I didn't do
'Cause obviously I don't have a clue

Well I mighta woke up on the wrong side of mornin'
But I ended every evening with a kiss
I could have overlooked a few tender moments
But how did it come to this

While I figure out where this is goin'
I better get down on my knees
In case this is my last chance to show ya
Hey, you, ya gotta believe me

Don't you know you're what I'm all about
And I'm so used to havin' you around
Was it somethin' I said or somethin' I didn't do
'Cause obviously I don't have a clue

Don't you know you're what I'm all about
And I'm so used to havin' you around
Was it somethin' I said or somethin' I didn't do
'Cause obviously I don't have a clue
Oh, obviously I don't have a clue
