Summer came and went, and now it's gone.
The leaves are falling down
It's like everyone but me
Is moving on.
But I don't wanna say goodbye
To the time that we had,
Now it's a photographic night,
Finally understand
What it feels like when
It ends, when she slips through your head
It's thinking that you'll find out that it's over
And that you'll never get to hold her again.
Cause she's gone and you can't fix what's been thorn
And it just keep on getting colder inside
Now I know what it feels like.

I was always on the outside looking in,
Standing on the side lines,
There she found a way under my skin
I felt that it was magical.
But a change with the world
Until you lose the one you want
You'll never know how much it hurts.
What it feels like when
It ends, when she slips through your head
It's thinking that you'll find out that it's over
And that you'll never get to hold her again.
Cause she's gone and you can't fix what's been thorn,
And it just keep on getting colder inside
Now I know what it feels like.
Now I know what it feels like.
When she's with someone else
And you drowned in so fast in regret
And it feels like you're just frozen inside. Oh.

Now I can say I understand
What it feels like when
It ends, when she slips through your head
It's thinking that you'll find out that it's over
And that you'll never get to hold her again.
Cause she's gone and you can't fix what's been thorn
And it just keep on getting colder inside

Now I know what it feels like.
When it ends, when she slips through your head
It's thinking that you'll find out that it's over
And that you'll never get to hold her again.
Cause she's gone and you can't fix what's been thorn
And it just keep on getting colder inside
Now I know what it feels like.
Oh oh oh.
I know, yeah!
