How long has it been,
How long have you held it in
And how long will you wait
Before you let somebody
Take your breath away again.

I wanna be the one who turns you on.
Makes love till all is gone.
Be the man you dreamed of all your life
I swear I'll make it last until,
Tears of joy come pouring from your eyes,
I wanna make you cry.

Tell me what to do,
And I'll do what you want me to,
'cause darling I believe,
That i have fallin hopelessly and helplessly for you.

I wanna be the one who turns you on.
Makes love till all is gone.
Be the man you dreamed of all your life
I swear I'll make it last until,
Tears of joy come pouring from your eyes,
I wanna make you cry.

I swear I'll make it last until,
Tears of joy come pouring from your eyes,
I wanna make you cry.

I wanna make you cry.
