Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the eye, look in the soul
Look in the trunk, look out below

What you're thinking, that you see
May not be what it seems to be
So look it up, it up and down

Little quicker than the eyes
Don't be blind about life
So look it up, it up and down

Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the eyes, look in the soul
Look in the trunk, look out below

Call a witness, can you spot
What you see in front of you is really there
So look it up, it up, and down

Little quicker than the eyes
Don't be blind about life
So look it up, it up and down

Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the eyes, look in the soul
Look in the trunk, look out below

Stop, look and listen, stop, look and listen
Stop, stop
Stop, look and listen
Look at the heart, look at the soul

Stop, look and listen, stop, look and listen
Stop, stop
Stop, look and listen
Look at the heart, look at the soul

Stop, look and listen, stop, look and listen

Stop, stop
Stop, look and listen
Look at the heart, look at the soul

Stop, look and listen, stop, look and listen
Stop, stop
Stop, look and listen
Look at the heart, look at the soul

Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the trunk, look out below

Look in the eyes, look in the soul
Look in the trunk, look out below

Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the eyes, look in the soul
Look in the trunk, look out below

Look at the love, look at the tears
Look at the heart, look at the fear
Look in the eyes, look in the soul
