(Traditional / Gods and monsters)

The stone cold loner
And his eye's amazing
I'm a stone cold loner
As cool as a man could be
I was gigin' myself
When the love comes down on me

I let my bluebird
Fly on a cage
I sing a song for they've never gonna change the world, no
Let her fly away
Oh, let her fly away
I guess some lonesome chap
Who's waiting for you night and day

Bluebird is a liar
She'll never love you not for long
Bluebird's liar !
She never gonna love you long
She don't love you
But you know your best friend done before

I have an angel
With eyes like the ocean blue
I have an angel
With eyes like the ocean blue

Someday that bluebird
Is gonna fly away back to you

Angel, she's got a ??
Angel, angel sing a song
The rain is falling
And I believe my time has come

I let my bluebird
Fly on a cage
She'll pull , for the night to change or save the world
No, she's on bruising storm, angel

She's on a bruising storm
The rain is falling and I believe my time has come

My bluebird told me
I was a lover babe
Falling a mountain in another black bird cage
I said why
What was wrong with me
Why why why , what's wrong with me

What's you gonna do
Cos' there's a black bird picking out you see
Oh oh oh oh
