I hear the scratches comin' from here stereo
Of some driftin' cowboy singin' on some old radio show
I know he's in there with her, lyin' on her bed
Puttin' sorrow in her soul and ideas in her head.

Baby's gettin' high on Hank Williams
Dear Lord, it's drivin' us apart
I got this low down lonesome feelin'
She's got cheatin' on her heart.

I don't know how to reach her when she gets this way
I don't know what gets into her when those old records play
Her windows are wide open, bedroom door is locked
I'll be sleepin' on the floor and prayin' she sleeps it off.

Baby's gettin' high on Hank Williams
Dear Lord, it's drivin' us apart
I got this low down lonesome feelin'
She's got cheatin' on her heart.

And she swears to me she needs my love
But sometimes it just ain't enough
She's in there and danged if I know why

Baby's gettin' high on Hank Williams
Dear Lord, it's drivin' us apart
I got this low down lonesome feelin'
She's got cheatin' on her heart.

She's got cheatin' on her heart
Yeah, she's got cheatin' on her heart
On her heart...
