"More In Love"

Every day, every day I will live for
For the One who has come as my Savior
Living loud, here and now
I will shout Your fame
Evermore, evermore I'll adore You
Thankful for every door that I break through
In the trials and the smiles
I will give You praise

You mean more than every breath and
You free me with every step and . . .

CHORUS

You heal my broken heart and
That's why I keep on falling more in love
More in love
You take me where You are and
That's why I keep on falling more in love
So much more in love with You

Bridge

You are the sun light
You are the falling rain
You are the mountains
You always stay the same
Stay the same
