Today we come to God
Where saints and angels trod
And Jesus is the light
So let us run the race
With power and in faith
Redeemed and purified
For we know, You, O God
Are the All Consuming Fire

Come and shake, shake this place
Break away these chains, so only truth remains
Come and shake, shake this place
Cause we want You to reign for the glory of Your name
Shake this place

The Kingdom we receive is for eternity
And will not be denied
So let us live for God with holy fear and awe
With joy before our eyes
Haste the day when the earth
Shakes and trembles at Your name

Come and shake, shake this place
Break away these chains, so only truth remains
Come and shake, shake this place
Cause we want You to reign for the glory of Your name
Shake this place
Shake this place

Shake everything that can be shaken
Awake everything that can be awakened
[x4]

Come and shake, shake this place
Break away these chains, so only truth remains
Come and shake, shake this place
Cause we want You to reign for the glory of Your name
Shake this place
Shake this place
