(Latimer/Bardens/Ward)

Sleepless nights, restless days

Memories of her gentle ways

Love locked out looks for a home

A place to find a shelter from the storm

She said you are the air I breathe

The life I love, the dream I weave

Without a word, with just a touch

Now I realize you meant so much

Been awake so long

I feel like I belong

With the rain

Morning light appears

The feelings of the night

Remain

Somewhere inbetween

The waking and the dream

Feel you close to me

Andrew Latimer Guitar, Vocals
