When I'm on my own
And out of my mind
I realize how I've grown
And changed my old line

Learning how to give
And not be afraid
Of the place where I live
And mistakes I have made

You are the one changing my life
You are the one making it right
You are the one warming my nights
You are the one

And you are the one giving me all
You are the one opening doors
You are the one hearing my call
You are the one

Looking 'round I can see
You are still here
Not in sight but in me
Your being appears

You are the one changing my life
You are the one making it right
You are the one warming my nights
You are the one

And you are the one giving me all
You are the one opening doors
You are the one hearing my call
You are the one

You are the one changing my life
You are the one making it right
You are the one warming my nights
You are the one

And you are the one giving me all
You are the one opening doors

You are the one hearing my call
You are the one
