I can't stop thinking of what I shouldn't do
And I've been patient waiting
I've been waiting here for you
I hate it, don't you know that
I had a couple ways I thought it'd work out
In the meantime, I can stop trying
I'm afraid we're not the same

I do it for my love

Pick me up
Pull me down
There's no need to feel we have to break out
Changed my mind in a way
I'm not saying that it's better this way

So get up and get out
There's no hope for yourself
Get away
You can tell there's nothing right going on
