Ten years later & still going
The same questions over & over
Yet many still unananswered
But how can u choose?
Unless u experience choice
Then again, most of what we learn
Gets lost in the wash... anyways
World unity seems 2 b further from reality
The sexual revolution has become
A war against promiscuity
But there is indeed a new road
A new salvation for us all
So if u close your eyes & take my hand
U've got a 1 way ticket to the LOVE PARADE...
