Whisper in the morning turns into a silent scream
Can u hear me burstin' out of each & every seam?
Strolling down the runway with the blinders in my eyes
I can't seem 2 look much further, the key 2 my demise
(Chorus:)
Take me 2 the highest mountain, take me in your arms
Cuz it's high time, i find time 2 rise again
Take me from the darkest nightmare, don't let me fall again
Cuz it's high time, i find time 2 rise again
Walking out of every story, running out of dreams
Only fools aint strong enough 2 know just what it means
Through the tunnel vision with the need 2 understand Nothing ventured, nothing gained means nothing in the end
(Chorus)
Blinded by the glow of living on the lines
Feeling like i can't break away
So look into the future, cuz i now know who i am 2morrow, 2morrow will bring a brighter day
Through the tunnel vision with the need 2 understand Nothing ventured, nothing gained means nothing in
the end
(Chorus)
