I can't explain in words the things you do to me
Intoxicated with the beauty that I see It's never been the same since you smiled at me that day
Cause you're the one who changed my life
And took my breath away

I can't express the way I feel when I'm with you.
A simple caress or just a kiss to set the mood.
A dance by candlelight, romancing through the night
Spending time alone with you has never felt so right

And I would never turn from you
I'll be right here the whole night through
Let's leave our worries all behind
I'll hold you closely, take it slowly
Give you everything I am
Your every wish is my command
Nothing matters more to me
Than to be the one you need.

I always felt that we were more than just friends
And the look in your eyes implies you need me once again
So put your trust in me, I'll fulfill your fantasies
Let's make this moment last forever
Our love, eternally.

And I would never turn from you
I'll be right here the whole night through
Let's leave our worries all behind
I'll hold you closely, take it slowly
Give you everything I am
Your every wish is my command
Nothing matters more to me
Than to be the one you need.

Whisper my feelings to you when you're asleep

Speak from my heart about how you fulfill my dreams Assure your mind that this is the way that things should be Cause I want you to know that I'll never let go
Our love's everything you need

And I would never turn from you
I'll be right here the whole night through
Let's leave our worries all behind
I'll hold you closely, take it slowly
Give you everything I am
Your every wish is my command
Nothing matters more to me
Than to be the one you need.
