I ought to get going
I shouldn't stay here and love you
More than I do
Cause you're so much younger than I am

Come up the years, come up the years
And love me, love me love me
A younger girl keeps hanging around
One of the loveliest I've ever found
Blowin' my mind, stealin' my heart
I ought to get going
Somebody help me 'fore I fall apart.

I shouldn't stay here and love you
More than I do
Cause you're so much younger than I am
Come up the years, come up the years

And love me, love me love me

And I've been happy to go right along
The things she's doing keep turning me on
I know it's time that I said goodbye
I know I can't leave no matter how hard I try.
I ought to get going

More than I do
I shouldn't stay here and love you
Come up the years, come up the years
Cause you're so much younger than I am
And love me, love me love me
