Ai child you are timeless and i love you
Child that i see
And i see you tryin' to lean towards kindness
Now that's what i like to see.

That's what i like to see
I want to see your love
And i want to feel
I want to feel your love.

Ai garimas? sometimes loving in the rain
Some feel like steel, some taste like candy
Ai garimas? the same in any language
The same in any name
Call it what you feel
Call it whatever's handy
We don't have to know the name
We don't have to have the same name
We don't have to have any name at all
All 'cause you gave me your love
And now i know just exactly who to call.

That's what i like to see
I like to see your love
And i want to feel
I want to feel your love.

We don't have to know the name
We don't have to have the same name
We don't have to have any name at all
Cause you gave me your love
And now i know just exactly who to call.
