"Love Sweet Love"

Everyday, every time,
I think about sweet moments I once had
But I still hesitate to fall in love again
Afraid I'd find myself hurting
I don't know
I'm not sure if what I'm feeling now is love
So now I need to know if it's time to share and to open up my heart...

Love, sweet love everybodys looking for
Love, real love, everybody's longing for
Love can break our hearts
Now I know that it's time to start

And take a chance with you/ Am I ready?
I think I'm ready
To face this fear of giving up my heart
Should I, I think I should try to give my all
This time I'll make it right

Love, sweet love, everybody's looking for
Love, real love, everybody's longing for
Love can break our hearts
Now I know that it's time to start
And take a chance with you

Here I am
Take me by the hand
And take me in your arms
Trust me and my love to keep you safe from harm
Now I won't hesitate to give my heart and give to you

Love, sweet love, everybody's looking for
Love, real love, everybody's longing for
Love can break our hearts
Now I know that it's time to start
To take a chance with you
