whewwwww ohhhh oh oh ummmm ummmm

I thought that time was on our side
Oh why did it slip away

I thought two hearts like yours and mine
Combined would be so hard to separate
But you've gone moved on
So I'll pretend nothings changed and Bring back yesterday

I'll make believe we never lost the magic
I'll make believe our love is still alive
I'll make believe what use to be is somewhere deep inside
I'll make believe it never really happened
I'll make believe you never said goodbye
I'll make believe the future still belongs to you and I whewwwww If love is hiding in your heart

Then love don't you leave me in the dark
Cause now my nights are long and cold
Oh love, since you left me here alone
So I'll believe, some day we'll be Back to together again, but baby until then

I'll make believe we never lost the magic
I'll make believe our love is still alive
I'll make believe what use to be is somewhere deep
I'll make believe it never really happened
I'll make believe you never said goodbye
I'll make believe the future still belongs to you and I

Oh stars use to shine
Like the glow in your angel eyes
When our passion burned sweet in the night
You'll never knew who much I miss
The softness of your tender kiss
But for now I guess I'll go on dreaming

I'll make believe we never lost the magic
I'll make believe our love is still alive
I'll make believe what use to be is somewhere deep
I'll make believe it never really happened
I'll make believe you never said goodbye
I'll make believe the future still belongs to you and I

I'll make believe we never lost the magic
I'll make believe our love is still alive
I'll make believe what use to be is somewhere deep
I'll make believe it never really happened
I'll make believe you never said goodbye
I'll make believe the future still belongs to you and I

Make believeeeeeeeeeeeee our love is still alive
Heyyyyyyyyyyy
I'll make believe the future still belongs to you and I
