There's a place, I have kept, that's reserve for someone special,
There's a place, I have kept, in the corner of my heart Even though, you have gone, you left behind some memories
There are traces all around
I've tried so hard to erase it, somehow I can't escape it Oh I, feel my heart can wait forever, oh yea, just to be with you.

Well I hope, there just might, be a little voice inside of you,
Telling you, once again, you have left behind true love behind,
There's no one else, on this earth, who can give what I have given
You will have my love no regrets, yea
If you want it, come and get it, the sooner girl the
better,
But I feel, my heart can wait forever, ohh baby, just to be with you,
Ohh I feel, in time well be together, girl I've laid my love out on the line, now it's up to you.

And in time can't replace, the love we've shared, not for the moment ,
Don't deny your heart, anymore,
If you want it, come and get it, the sooner girl, the
better.
But I feel, my heart can wait forever, ohh baby, cause I want to be with you baby Oh I feel inside well be together, girl I've laid my down on the line, now it's up to you!

Scatt and fade out.
