Here we are on the edge of never letting go and one by one we begin to let our secrets show always thought I could always thought I would be seen in someone's eyes, the way I look to you ....

Oh we're true believers
who can see
the world as it can be

who take all that they are
and reach for something more believers you and I

have made a love tonight

that makes one out of two like all true believers do.....

There you are close enough to kiss too real to touch

oooooh
and here I am trying to believe I feel so much

Never thought I could never thought I would be safe in someone's arms the way I am with you.....

believers you and I

like all true believers do.....

I will never let cha get away anywhere you are.... heyyyyyy hey.

Because we're true believers who can see

believers you and I

like all true believers do.....
