Featuring Elisa Fiorillo

How come you can't explain it,
The way you're acting recently?
It seems that everything is changing,
Cause I can tell the way you're treating me.
I believe that you still love me,
But you find it hard to show.
Don't throw away the chance,
Cause it might be your last,
And I won't let you forget
Who, who found who?

Who,
Who found who?
Look at all the time you've wasted
And how your life is just a mess.
I took you home to meet my family;
It wasn't meant to be a test.
I wanted you to see devotion,
And feel that you were being loved.
Don't throw away this chance,
Cause it might be your last,
And I won't let you forget
Who
Who found who?

Who
Who found who?
Who
Who found who?

Who
Who found who?
Hold me, show me, oh baby,
Don't fight it.
It's easy; you know
There's nothing I would rather do
Than to give my love to only you.
Oh, I'm holding out my arms to you
Baby, don't let me down
So show me that you love me,

Cause it doesn't matter now.
Who who
Who found who?

Who who
Who found who?
Who who
Who found who?

Who who
Who found who,
Huh-uh-uh.
Who,
Who found who?
Who,
Who found who?
Who who
Who found who?

Who who who,
Who found who?
Who, who, who,
Who found who?

Who, who, who,
Who found who, whoa?
So hold me in your arms
And tell me you are mine
Don't throw away the chance
Cause it might be your last.
